

DIL SIDHU - University of Cambridge, IfM Engage Business Development & Programme Director

Dil Sidhu is the Business Development and Programme Director at IfM Engage, University of Cambridge. Previously, he served as Dean of the Business School and Professor of Management Practice at University of London, where he taught on MBA and executive education programmes.

He was Vice Dean at Columbia University in New York. In his previous role, he was Head of External Affairs at Alliance Manchester Business School, University of Manchester. He was responsible for major business relationships and stakeholder engagement activities with private, public and third sector organisations. He also worked extensively with many international organizations including the following:

Hilton Hotels, ICBC Bank (Shanghai), Honda Europe, Telenor, AT Kearney, The Washington Post & Newsweek, The Weather Channel, Lloyds Bank (Private Wealth), Microsoft, KPMG, ExxonMobil, EY, CitiGroup, Cisco Systems, SABMiller, Du Telecoms, Nestlé, Jaguar Land Rover, Marks & Spencer, BT Group, Telstra, Lufthansa Systems, QinetiQ, Apple UK, AstraZeneca, Daiichi-Sankyo Pharmaceuticals, Oxfam, Pernod Ricard, ASDA, Linklaters, Clifford Chance, PwC, RBS, NatWest, Lloyds of London, USA national Security Council, FBI, Heineken, Goldman Sachs, Torus Insurance, Transport for London, Royal Northern College of Music, NHS and Council of London.

In addition to three master's degrees (MSc (Operations Management), MBA (Strategy and Finance) and MA (Change Management and Innovation)), he has also successfully completed short programs in subjects such as Corporate Finance and Innovation.